

Payroll Deduction Enrollment Instructions

To sign up for the UGA Payroll Deduction you must have a Graduate Assistantship processed in the student system and 12 hour enrollment.

The Payroll Deduction option is only available during the Fall and Spring terms.

1. After you log into Athena, you will select the Student Tab, then select Student Accounts. Once in the Student Accounts you will then select Payroll Deduct Enrollment

2. Select the correct term.

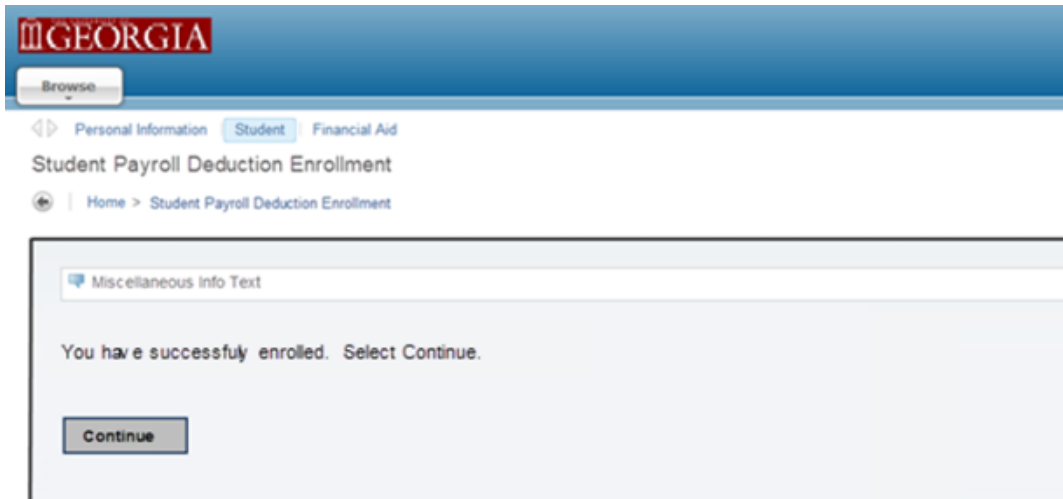

- The maximum amount that is eligible for Payroll Deduction will automatically appear in the box. You can reduce it if you need to and then click Update. The full amount will then be split into 4 payments that will be deducted from your paychecks. The dates the amounts will be taken out will be listed along with the amounts. Once everything is correct, click Continue.

- You will be taken to as screen to verify the deduction amounts. Then you must Accept the Terms and Conditions by checking the box. Once this is complete you will need to click on Complete Enrollment

The screenshot shows the 'Student Payroll Deduction Enrollment' page, similar to the previous one. It displays the same list of four payments: '$500.00 02/28/2013', '$500.00 03/31/2013', '$500.00 04/30/2013', and '$500.00 05/31/2013'. Below the list, there is a 'Miscellaneous Info Text' section with the text 'Terms and Conditions: Once you agree...'. Below this, there is a checkbox labeled 'Accept Terms and Conditions'. At the bottom of the form, there are 'Complete Enrollment' and 'Cancel' buttons.

5. Once you select Complete Enrollment you will get confirmation that you have successfully enrolled.

6. Once you have enrolled your maximum eligible amount it will not allow you to make changes.

7. If you still have a balance that qualifies, or have charges added that qualify for Payroll Deduction you can add that balance up to the maximum allowable balance.
