- I understand that I may prepay on my loan without penalty.
- I understand that a prepayment to principal will be used to reduce the amount of outstanding loan principal and decrease the repayment period and related total interest charge.
- I understand that if I pay more than my monthly payment, the additional amount will automatically be applied to the principal.
- I understand that my loan payments are due on or before the 1st of each month and considered late after the 15th of each month.
- I understand that all loan information is reported to national credit bureaus on a monthly basis. If my loan becomes delinquent, University of Georgia services can be withheld and the University of Georgia WILL report the delinquency to a credit bureau and my account may be assigned to an outside collection agency or legal firm for collection and I will be responsible for any collection costs and legal fees that may incur.
- I understand that I must report any change of address directly to Student Accounts-Loan Servicing department.
- I have visited <http://www.bursar.uga.edu/> website and fully understand the information provided for my loan type.
