DISCLAIMER:

The estimated cost calculator provides an estimate of costs to attend the University of Georgia for the term/academic year. The calculator does not include books, supplies or other related expenses nor does it consider aid. All rates shown are based on criteria you indicated. Tuition and fees are based on your residency, level, program of study, and campus. If you expect changes to your residency, program of study, campus or hours enrolled; the calculator is a good tool to see how these adjustments would impact you. The tool also allows you to adjust different options for housing, dining and parking to assist with making your choices when you attend.

When using this calculator, you acknowledge this is an estimate and amounts displayed do not represent a final determination on cost. Rates are subject to change as approved by the Board of Regents. Rates related to tuition and auxiliary services are subject to your preferences and final assignment. The estimates shall not be binding of the University of Georgia, University System of Georgia or the State.
