Guest Speaker – Michael Lachowski, Georgia Museum of Art

- Founder, Alfred Holbrook (<http://georgiamuseum.org/about/history>)
- Museum is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. Less than 5% in the US receive this honor.
- Located on East Campus along with the Performing Arts Center, Hodgens School of Music and the Art School.
- Employs about 35 staff including security and custodians
- Free admission, closed on Mondays and major holidays. Open on football game days. Great place to bring visitors.
- Mission Statement: The Georgia Museum of Art shares the mission of the University of Georgia to support and to promote teaching, research and service. Specifically, as a repository and educational instrument of the visual arts, the museum exists to collect, preserve, exhibit and interpret significant works of art.
- Lighting is vital to preservation
- Renovated art galleries include interesting artifacts like spoons once held by Paul Revere
- It contains a sculpture garden created entirely by women sculptors

- They provide a Café for snacks, drinks, etc.
- All Clark County 5th graders are invited to visit once a year
- There are volunteers that help with Summer programs, Toddler Tuesday, Senior Programs, Morning Mindfulness, Yoga, a bi-lingual family day, evening events and Symposiums and Exhibitions
- On April 7, a free opening reception for this year's master of fine arts degree candidates from the Lamar Dodd School of Art, will be open to the public with free refreshments
- From free memberships to Membership Levels to Membership Committees, each offering an array of activities
- Available to rent for an event with catering and a discount for UGA faculty/staff and students

Guest Speaker – Lance Peiper, EITS

Shared with the FASRG information about the new Arch Pass System which incorporates a two factor authentication system including your MyID and password and Duo.

March 23, 2018, will be the date that all students, faculty and staff must be enrolled.

If a key fob method of authentication is preferred instead of a personal cell phone, they will be available for free until September, 2018.

Banner Access will require two logins. Different than the one log in for ELC, OneSource and payroll.

Committee Reports:

HR Committee, Health and Safety and Communications – No committee reports

Chair's Report –

Staff Resource Fair is March 14, 2018, from 2 pm to 6 pm. Ads are across campus. Over 40 units will be represented from campus. Still looking for volunteers. Sign-up sheet available.
