

FINANCE DIVISION

We steward university resources and cultivate trust as strategic partners and advisors to enhance the teaching of the next generation of leaders, the research that changes lives, and the service and outreach for the state of Georgia and beyond.

— WHAT’S YOUR WHY? —

SPONSORED PROJECTS ADMINISTRATION

Sponsored Projects Administration serves the UGA research community by providing expert guidance, exceptional service, and reduced administrative burden throughout the sponsored project lifecycle to allow our investigators to foster positive change in the world.

ACCOUNTS PAYABLE

Accounts Payable takes pride in being a trusted partner within the University’s community. Through our dedicated efforts to customer service and processing timely payments, we want to ensure our University community has the resources necessary to support the University’s teaching, research, and public service missions.

PAYROLL

In the Payroll Department, we strive to provide excellent customer support to build long lasting relationships both within the department and across the university. We hope that our care and commitment can help to increase the accuracy of employee’s paychecks, and leave our campus partners better able to assist their employees. We take pride in working for the University of Georgia and believe our work helps to build the foundation of UGA’s mission for research, service, and outreach.

BURSAR AND TREASURY SERVICES

We, university stewards, operate as a team to create a culture of ethical and trustworthy practices to educate, empower, guide, engage, encourage and support the entire UGA community, which we are privileged to serve each day with the goal to enrich the student’s experience, enabling them to achieve their goals.

COMMITMENT MANAGEMENT

Commitment Management facilitates the flow of accurate financial transactions from stakeholders across campus. Our commitment and driving force is to provide an exceptional level of service. We strive to be a resource to all areas of campus by providing timely and practical guidance on policies and processes to ensure the missions of our division and institution are met.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Information Technology is, categorically, a team sport. Our daily jobs allow us to create remarkable systems, processes, and solutions and to produce results with one goal in mind - assisting the University community. We’re a small tactical group with diverse backgrounds and the skillsets to successfully develop, deploy and maintain both small and large-scale systems to keep Finance & Administration units running smoothly. Our greatest successes are often met when we appear invisible to most; however, at the end of the day, everything we do is focused on those we serve at the forefront of our actions.

UNIVERSITY BUDGET OFFICE

To provide strong leadership and multi-faceted support to the University community and external constituents that ensures awareness and understanding of UGA business operations, so our colleagues can perform their responsibilities with the utmost efficiency.

PROCUREMENT

The Procurement Office exists to steward financial resources and champion the world changing work being done by UGA’s faculty, staff, and students. We believe, that by doing our jobs well, we help create a better world today and for future generations. We do this through collaboration and building partnerships, leveraging our skillsets and knowledge, and safeguarding the University’s resources. We strive daily to be a “friendly face” for our customers and for them to want to work with us again.

MAIL & RECEIVING SERVICES

Our work at Mail & Receiving Services connects the University with the world and ensures all needed resources are received, delivered and shipped in a timely manner; helping the University to maintain its mission “to teach, to serve and to inquire about the nature of things.”

SUPPORT SERVICES

To provide a welcoming, positive experience while serving and empowering customers, and enhancing our culture of service and communication.

BULLDOG PRINT + DESIGN

Our team has the unique opportunity to connect with a wide array of members in our campus community. Every day, we interact with our customers through cutting-edge technology, creative design and personalized customer service. Our ability to see our impact on our customers’ work in the community and around the world is both rewarding and motivating.

ACCOUNTING

Accounting is dedicated to providing accurate financial information and support for internal and external stakeholders to make relevant and responsible financial decisions. As a team, we consist of loyal, dependable individuals that strive to benefit UGA by upholding its standards and exceptionalism. With every interaction, we represent UGA with pride and professionalism.

PROGRAMS & CHANGE MANAGEMENT

The Programs & Change Management team are connectors. We assert that effective communication is key to forging strong relationships, and that strong relationships are key to every great achievement. We genuinely believe that our work can change the world one day at a time. Every day we aspire to accelerate innovation and share ideas, to make information easy to find and simple to use, and to help our University community better serve one another, our state and our world.
